

WILD ROSE GARLAND DANCERS

of Portland, Oregon

are looking for dancers, musicians and drummers or other rhythm experts

We are an English traditional dance performance group. Over the last 18 years we have performed at dozens of local events and regional festivals, entertained at schools and retirement centers, and danced at overseas venues and the Oregon Shakespeare Festival.

We are looking for people who are interested in traditional English garland and country dancing. Our repertoire includes authentic traditional dances such as Dargason and the Boatman, and modern creations, such as Mikki's Maggot (danced to the traditional tune Jack's Maggot).

If you are interested in traditional English dances, know some traditional dance tunes and want to learn more, and enjoy performing and attending folk events around the Pacific Northwest, then please give our foreman a call
